

Complaint Handling Policy

Effective Date: June 1, 2026 | Version 1.0

Purpose

Good Company welcomes and values feedback from clients and families. This policy establishes the process by which complaints are received, investigated, and resolved. The goal is to address concerns promptly, fairly, and respectfully, and to use feedback as an opportunity to improve service quality.

Right to Complain Without Retaliation

Clients and family members are encouraged to share concerns at any time. No client will experience any reduction or change in service quality, scheduling, or treatment as a result of submitting a complaint. Retaliation in any form is strictly prohibited.

How to Submit a Complaint

Complaints may be submitted in any of the following ways:

- Phone: (586) 217-2898
- Email: hello@goodcompanyscs.com
- Mail: Good Company Senior Concierge Services, 4663 Lorin Dr. Shelby Twp. MI 48316
- In person during a visit
- Through a family member or designated representative

Acknowledgment Timeline

All complaints will be acknowledged within 24 hours of receipt. The acknowledgment will:

- Confirm that the complaint has been received
- Provide a point of contact for the matter
- Outline the expected timeline for resolution
- Ask any clarifying questions if needed

Investigation Process

Upon receiving a complaint, Good Company will:

1. Document the complaint in detail, including date, time, who submitted it, and the nature of the concern
2. Gather any relevant information from staff, client records, and other sources
3. Speak with the complainant to clarify details and gather additional information

4. Interview any staff member involved in the matter
5. Review applicable policies and procedures
6. Determine whether the complaint can be substantiated
7. Identify any corrective actions if needed

Resolution Timeline

If practically feasible, most complaints will be resolved within 7 business days of receipt. Complex matters may require additional time, in which case the complainant will be notified of the additional time needed to investigate and address the claim if substantiated.

Communication of Resolution

Upon completion of the investigation, the complainant will receive a written response that includes:

- A summary of the complaint
- A description of the investigation conducted
- The findings and resolution
- Any corrective actions taken or planned
- Information about further steps if the complainant is not satisfied

Complaints Involving Billing or Payment

Complaints that involve a disputed charge, invoice, or payment matter are handled under both this policy and the Payment Policy. Specifically:

- The disputed charge will be reviewed within 7 business days
- If the dispute cannot be resolved between the parties, the matter is escalated as described below

Escalation

If a complainant is not satisfied with the resolution, they may:

- Request a follow-up conversation with the Good Company owner
- Submit a written request for re-review of the matter
- Contact outside authorities, including Michigan Adult Protective Services (855-444-3911) for matters involving suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation

Confidentiality

All complaints are handled with discretion. Information about a complaint is shared only with those directly involved in the investigation and resolution. Complainant identity is kept confidential to the extent possible while still investigating the matter.

Documentation

All complaints are documented and retained in Good Company's records. Documentation includes:

- Date and source of complaint

- Nature and details of the complaint
- Investigation actions taken
- Findings and resolution
- Corrective actions implemented
- Communication with the complainant
- Date of resolution

Records Retention

Complaint records are retained for 10 years following resolution, in accordance with the Records Retention Policy. Records related to complaints that result in litigation, regulatory action, or open investigation are retained until the matter is fully resolved, plus 7 additional years.

Use of Feedback for Improvement

Complaints are reviewed periodically to identify trends and opportunities for improvement. Policies, procedures, training, and service practices are updated based on patterns identified through complaints and other feedback.

Policy Review

This policy is reviewed annually. All staff members are required to read and acknowledge this policy.

Policy reviewed and approved by:

Natalie Perras, Owner

Date: 6/9/2026